Uncompromising Luxury - 1470m² of Design and Lifestyle Excellence

Defined by its stunning views, perched high on Bartley's Hill with uncompromising privacy, timeless design and enduring quality - hidden in the heart of one of Brisbane's most prestigious inner city suburbs, Ascot. The home itself, immaculately designed and structurally perfect, is the combined dream of the current owners and leading Brisbane architect James Forbes, and showcases their determination for excellence and their ambition to achieve a design never before undertaken in the area.

An impressive four-storey masterpiece constructed as part of an extraordinary brief to build the finest family home in Brisbane, the exquisite residence comes with every conceivable luxury and consideration imaginable. This includes five oversized bedrooms - four with their own designer ensuites, living areas and recreational rooms perfectly positioned throughout with the split-level construction offering the perfect level of privacy and subtle separation.
